

Event Agenda

Decision-Making in Pharma Manufacturing: Ethics, Compliance, and Resilience (PDA 297)

One-Day Course

8:30 Welcome and Introductions

- 9:00 Principles & Frameworks of Decision-Making
- Small Group Activity “Applying Decision-Making Models to Real-World Scenarios”

10:30 Break

- 10:45 Ethical Decision-Making in Pharmaceutical Manufacturing
- Small Group Activity “Navigating Ethical Dilemmas: Role-Playing Real-World Scenarios”

12:00 Lunch

- 13:00 Regulatory Compliance & Risk Management in Decision-Making (Presented by Former FDA Regulator)
- Overview of the FDA’s Role in Pharmaceutical Manufacturing
  - Regulatory Decision-Making in High-Stakes Scenarios
  - Navigating FDA Inspections and Regulatory Challenges
  - Small Group Activity “Tackling Regulatory Challenges: Case Study Solutions and Compliance Strategies”

14:30 Break

- 14:45 The Physiological Impact of Decision-Making on the Brain and Body (Taught by Clinical Psychiatrist)
- Understanding the Physiological Effects of Decision-Making on the Brain and Body
  - Techniques for Managing Stress and Fatigue
  - Small Group Activity “Managing Decision Fatigue: Reflection and Stress Reduction Strategies”

16:15 Best Practices for Effective Decision-Making

- 16:45 Creating Personal Action Plans for Improving Decision-Making
- Individual Activity “Crafting Your Action Plan: Personalizing Decision-Making Improvements”

17:15 Closing Remarks and Final Questions

17:30 End of Event